RESEARCH & SPATIAL TRANSLATION

Part of my ongoing thesis, Architecture of Choice, a six-layer women's centre in Delhi catering to survivors of sexual abuse and violence. The layers progress from everyday public interaction to discreet crisis intervention, individual support, and private recovery, allowing women to choose their degree of visibility, participation, and retreat.